This policy sets out what Maes Owen does in practice to meet its data protection obligations.

Data Protection Act Responsibility

The Headteacher in conjunction with the Governing Body is responsible for the general development, promotion, and adherence to this policy. Using information and guidance provided by the Headteacher, all school staff that are likely to process personal data in any way are expected to:

3. Dispose of and/or destroy confidentially where necessary those records that have reached the end of their retention period.

School Compliance with the Data Protection Principles

Maes Owen is committed to the eight Data Protection Principles set out in the Act. The Headteacher provides a central and focal point for promoting good management of personal data and for upholding the rights established in the Act.

Subject Access Requests are managed in accordance with specified and established procedures.

The Headteacher will establish, implement and monitor adherence to Data Protection procedures and accompanying retention schedules to ensure that data is not retained for any longer than necessary.
