<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• We are lucky to live close to the coast and to the countryside. Write a list of wonderful things you can do in both areas. Now write a paragraph on which is your favourite place, giving reasons for your opinion.</li> <li>• Find out about SeaLife creatures. Include information on how it finds food and how it protects itself from predators. For example: Seahorses have long thin snouts enabling them to probe into nooks and crannies for food. When they find food, they suck it up through their snouts like a vacuum cleaner. Because they are poor swimmers, seahorses protect themselves by changing colour to blend in with their surroundings.</li> <li>• Now research some woodland creatures. Create 4 – 6 Top Trump type cards full of facts on these chosen creatures. Your categories could include lifespan, length, rarity, cute rating etc.</li> <li>• Clive Gould is a Welsh coastal artist, his work is highly realistic, so real they could be mistaken for a photograph. Have a look at some of his artwork and attempt to either photograph or paint a piece of art in the style of Clive Gould.</li> <li>• Sir Kyffin Williams was a very famous Welsh landscape painter. He loved to paint the landscapes around his home in north Wales. He strived to show the beauty of the area in</li> </ul>		The Urdd theme this year is 'Summit to sea'. We would like the children to take part in our school Eisteddfod by competing in the following competitions. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 2D Art work - A collage, drawing, computer picture or painting linked to the theme</li> <li>• 3D Art work – This could be a model or puppet</li> <li>• Baking - A cake or biscuit decorated with the theme in mind</li> <li>• Photography</li> <li>• Poetry</li> </ul>
