- Read another book by Michael Morpurgo and write a book review
- Draw a map of an imaginative island
- Draw or make a 3D model of a deserted island
- Research an island located anywhere in the world & create a factfile on its history, climate, landmarks, language etc
- Create a Missing Person poster, to help find Michael
- Research Japan (where Kensuke is from) and complete a fact file on its history, language and culture
- Origami is a paper folding activity originated from Japan. Can you practise this skill and share with us something you have made?
- In Kensuke's Kingdom, the story follows Michael after he fell overboard. What if the story followed his parents instead? Can you write an alternative ending to the story following Michael's parents?
- Write a list of instructions or a leaflet about 'Survival skills'

Our theme this year is 'Yr Afanc'. We would like the children to take part in our Eisteddfod by competing in the following competitions.

- 2D Art work - A collage, drawing, computer picture or painting linked to the theme
- 3D Art work – This could be a model or puppet
- Baking - A cake or biscuit decorated with the theme in mind
- Photography
- Poetry

Good luck and enjoy! “What we learn with pleasure, we never forget!”
